SECTION - A
(READING SKILLS)

[20 Marks]

1. Read the passage given below:

- (1) When we think of the game of cricket, we come to the conclusion that it is primarily a game that depends on outstanding physical activities, good hand-eye co-ordination, speed, skill and strength. It provides entertainment and generates strong feelings of excitement. A good match of cricket or of any other game neither adds to the existing stock of human knowledge nor reveals any secret of existence. It does not carry any deep meaning but most people, particularly the lover of sports attach deep emotions and numerous meanings to it. Games are thought of as a metaphor for life. They are supposed to teach many lessons. In fact, more is said and written about a cricket match than about scientific findings or great philosophy.
- (2) This is because games, like a morality play, in which settings and rules are made by us, can easily make people test their fair and foul conduct, principles of reward and punishment, and emotions of joy and disappointment. They can make us experience the thrill of war without exposing us to its dangers. A man watching a cricket match on T.V. and munching popcorn is like a surrogate warrior. In fact, games provide us with a safe outlet for our aggressiveness. If games become aggressive, they lose the very purpose of providing entertainment and purging us of our aggressiveness. They can calm our impatience without creating any conflict.
- (3) Commentators, journalists, politicians and analysts can do a great favour to the competing teams by keeping the excitement within limits. The teams should play without being dominated by feelings of national honour and shame. Excellent performance of the players of both teams should be enjoyed and appreciated.
Winning or losing in a game should not be taken seriously. A game is fun if it is played with true spirit of sportsmanship.

Based on your understanding of the passage, answer the questions given below:

- (i) Complete the sentence by choosing an appropriate option : 10 x 1 = 10
Most people conclude that cricket is primarily a game because

- (a) it is played as a match
(b) it requires two teams
(c) it includes physical activity
(d) it depends only on skill and strength

Sol. (c) It requires physical activity

- (ii) Comment on the writer's reference to that cricket does not reveal any secret of existence.

Sol. According to the writer, cricket or any other game does not carry any deep meaning.

- (iii) List two responses which watching a game of cricket gives rise to.

Sol. Make us experience the thrill of War without exposing to its dangerous.

Can provide a safe outlets for our aggressiveness.

Can calm our impatience without creating any conflict.

(iv) Select the option that conveys the opposite of 'destroy' from words used in the passage.

- (a) reveals deep cons
- (b) experience
- (c) generate
- (d) purging

Sol. (c) generate

(v) The writer would not agree with the given statements based on paragraph 2, EXCEPT

- (a) Rules of any game are made by people.
- (b) Watching a cricket match makes the viewer believe that he is fighting a battle?
- (c) It is necessary for a game to be aggressive in order to build excitement.
- (d). A game can test people's sense of fair judgement.

Sol. (d). A game can test people's sense of fair judgement.

(vi) With reference to the passage, a spectator is compared to a 'surrogate warrior'.

Choose the option that best describes this phrase:

- (a) a spectator who is paid to watch.
- (b) a spectator who is in pain while watching the match.
- (c) a spectator who enjoys the match as an armchair soldier.
- (d) a spectator who makes judgement about reward and punishment.

Sol. (c) A spectator who enjoys the match as an armchair Soldier.

(vii) Why does the writer compare games to a morality play?

Sol. The writer compares games to a morality play as its settings and rules are made by us, it can easily make people test their fair and foul conduct, It has principles of reward and punishment, and emotions of joys joy and disappointment.

(viii) Complete the given sentence with an appropriate inference with respect to the following:

The writer says that games can calm our impatience without creating any conflict by _____.

Sol. By providing entertainment and purging us of our aggressiveness.

2. Read the following report and answer the questions by choosing the correct/most appropriate option:

- (1) How bird hits happen, why they are a concern?

New Delhi June 20

At least two bird strike incidents happened on Sunday. Both aircrafts returned to their airports of origin and were grounded for maintenance. An ABC aircraft, which took off from Guwahati towards Delhi, suffered damage to its left engine following a bird hit at 1600 feet. The pilots returned to Guwahati. The other strike happened on another flight from Patna to Delhi. The pilots of the aircraft suspected a bird strike during the take-off roll but continued to climb. Following the take off rotation, they were informed by the cabin crew of sparks emanating from the left engine. Subsequently, the pilots were also informed by air traffic control of smoke coming out of one of the engines. The pilots declared an emergency and returned to Patna.

- (2) Why are bird strikes a concern?

Bird strikes are among the most common threats to aircraft safety, and they typically occur during take-off or landing. Dozens of bird-strikes happen each day but some can be more dangerous than others. Typically, when birds collide with an aircraft's airframe, it is unlikely to cause significant problems for the pilots flying. But there are instances when the aircraft engine ingests the birds. This can lead to a loss of thrust for the engine and cause maneuverability problems for the crew. In these cases, where a jet engine ingests a bird, procedures would generally call for pilots to land the plane at the closest airport. While most airframe bird strikes are not considered critical to air safety, if a collision cracks a window or a wind screen, pilots will look to land as early as possible.

- (3) How critical are bird strikes to air safety?

Smaller planes would generally be more susceptible to the dangers of bird strikes than larger ones. However, given that bird strikes mostly happen during take-off and landing, these incidents could distract the pilots during what are highly critical phases of flights that demand the complete attention of the crew.

(4) What causes bird-strikes?

The presence of birds around an aircraft increases the chances of a bird strike. In the monsoon, as water puddles emerge on open grounds attracting insects to breed, the presence of birds increases. In some cases, bird hits also happen at higher altitudes when a plane is cruising. These are more dangerous than the low-altitude hits, given that they can cause rapid depressurization of cabins. Other reasons for bird activity around the air field could be presence of landfills or waste disposal sites that can attract a large number of birds. 10 × 1 = 10

(i) Does the following statement agree with the information given in paragraph 1.

When an airplane is hit by a bird or is suspected to have been hit, the passengers must be asked to get down at once. Select from the following:

True : If the statement agrees with the information.

False : If the statement contradicts the information.

Not Given : If there is no information on this.

Sol. Not given.

(ii) Select the option that displays the most likely reason for Bird hits.

- (a) when the aircraft is overloaded
- (b) at the time of landing or taking off
- (c) when the crew become negligent
- (d) when the passengers become panicky

Sol. (a) At the time of landing or taking off.

(iii) Complete the sentence appropriately with one word.

Smaller planes are generally more _____ than the larger ones.

Sol. endangered/ threatened/ vulnerable.

(iv) Complete the sentence by selecting the most appropriate option: When the window or the windscreen of the air plane is cracked due to a bird hit _____

- (a) the crew must rush to the cockpit.
- (b) the pilot must land at the earliest airport.
- (c) the pilot must inform the maintenance engineer.
- (d) the pilot must get instructions from the aviation wing what should do in emergency.

Sol. (b) the pilot must land at the earliest airport.

(v) Based on the reading of the text, state a point to further the statement.

Dozens of bird hits take place every day _____.

- (a) but only a few are dangerous.
- (b) all of them are fatal.
- (c) but after every bird hit it is imperative to land the aircraft.
- (d) the pilot should ignore them.

Sol. (a) but only a few are dangerous.

(vii) Complete the sentence appropriately with one/two words.

In cases where the aircraft engine infests the bird, it leads to the loss of thrust and causes problems in _____.

Sol. Maneuvering / Navigation / Movement /

(viii) Which are the areas more prone to bird hits?

Sol. Where water puddles are formed in the monsoon/ Presence of landfills or waste disposable disposal sites.

(ix) Based on the reading of the text, state a point to challenge the given statement:

The area around air fields should be clear of any waste disposal sites.

Sol. Bird hits which happen at higher altitude are more dangerous because they can cause rapid depressurization of cabin (Para 4)

(x) Look at the graph. It shows that between 2016 and 2021, whereas air flights have come down, the bird-hits have gone up. This implies that the incidence of bird hits has _____

- (a) decreased (b) increased

Sub : Need to keep our surroundings clean

Sir

Through the columns of your esteemed daily, I would like to share my views on the need to keep our surroundings clean to avoid outbreak of common diseases.

Dirty surroundings lead to outbreak of common diseases like Malaria, Dengue etc. Cleaning of surrounding, environment, school or work place is an important habit and also a social responsibility. habit reduces viruses and bacteria and gives us a healthy life. It should be practiced regularly as a habit from our childhood. To lead a healthy life, we must follow the rules of cleaning and should be aware of the importance of the cleaning . We should not store water . It is a breeding place for the mosquitoes, in general and diseases like Malaria, Dengue, Chicken-guania etc. spread rapidly. Don't expose your skin and keep protected by wearing full clothes. To save yourselves, apply mosquito repellents and sleep under mosquito nets.

So I would like to suggest the school's authorities and NGOs to organize cleaning awareness programs in the schools and localities to encourage people and kids for personal as well as environmental cleanliness. I hope that after seeing this letter, the school authorities and NGOs shall positively look upon this issue as soon as possible.

Thanking you

Yours faithfully

Problem of Stray Dogs

(By - Prerna)

Nowadays the problem of stray dogs is burning issue and one can see it everywhere. The aggressive and the uncontrollable behaviour has become a threat in the residential areas. Some of them were left by their owners while the others grew up in the streets. The growing armies of stray dogs provoke quite natural fear of inhabitants, who are ready to approve any steps taken by authorities through restriction of dogs' number.

Many people in our society consider stray dogs as a nuisance. They say things like: "They are dirtying our streets"; "They scare off our children"; "They bite people and spread rabies"; "Why aren't they removed from here?" The animal lovers say: "Dogs have a right to live too"; "We don't own this earth, dogs have equal rights to live on this land". The barking and howling also creates nuisance to the community. The dogs litter the streets by overturning the dustbins. Children are scared to play outside their house. But we cannot kill or remove stray dogs from a place because they are living beings like us capable of all emotions and suffering and hence have a right too like us to live in that space.

Killing or removal of dogs from an area is not a solution as is normally thought. So, to solve the problem of rabies and over-population of street dogs, we need to find solutions that are ethical and lawful. The solution of the sterilization and vaccination program will satisfy both the dog 'haters' and 'lovers'. Vaccination involves giving the dogs an anti-rabies shot. As they are vaccinated against Rabies and other diseases they do not pose any health hazard. Like humans, animals also have a right to live. But they have a complete sensory nervous system allowing them to be aware and communicative. They feel pain, pleasure, fear, frustration, loneliness, and motherly love. These dogs should also be adopted and taken care of. They too have the right to live

(b) What are the feelings of the poet about her aged mother with reference to the poem 'My Mother at Sixty Six'?

Sol. The poet, while leaving her parent's home, observes her mother's pallid face. For the poet, the 'ashen' face of her mother, lost of all vitality and colour, bears resemblance to a corpse. She realizes, with pain, that her mother has grown old and is nearing her death. Such thoughts make her recollect her childhood fear and anxiety of losing her mother. The idea of getting separated from her mother distresses her. Even her smiles are an expression of her helplessness in the face of what is inevitable.

(c) Describe the role of Raj Kumar Shukla in Indigo.

Sol. Raj Kumar Shukla was a sharecropper from Champaran. He was illiterate but resolute. He went to the congress session to complain about the injustice of the landlord system in Bihar. He was sure that Gandhiji could help them. He wanted Gandhiji to come to Champaran district. So he wanted to meet Gandhiji. Latter Gandhiji went with him to Champaran and got Justice for them.

(d) 'There can be life under apparent stillness'. Explain. (Keeping Quiet)

Sol. There can be life under apparent stillness and nature is the best example. Earth can teach us how we can be productive and useful even by maintaining silence. The Earth undergoes the process of rejuvenation and regeneration. It nurtures all living beings, plants and animals and quietly maintains the balance in nature. This is what we can learn from earth. It helps in the rebirth of new life. We can all learn to introspect silently.

(e) Explain the metaphor of the rattrap.

Sol. There is a great metaphor of existence in the statement, 'The whole world is a rattrap'. The tramp went around selling small rattraps made of scrap wire. One day he was struck by the idea that the whole world was nothing but a big rattrap. It existed only to set baits for people. It offered riches and joys, shelter and food, heat and clothing in the same manner as the rattrap offered cheese. As soon as someone let himself be tempted to touch the bait, it closed in on him and then everything came to an end.

(f) Do we experience things of beauty only for short moments or do they make a lasting impression? Explain. (A Thing of Beauty)

Sol. A thing of beauty is eternal and gives us everlasting joy and happiness. The world is filled with negative elements which make our life dull, sad, depressing and bereft of hope. In such moments, a beautiful thing gives us everlasting joy and helps us forget our sorrows. Yes, a beautiful thing is worth treasuring because even its memory soothes our nerves and inspires us to overcome the challenges of life.

11. Answer any TWO of the following in about 40-50 words each:

2 × 2 = 4

(a) Describe Gondwana.

Sol. Gondwana was a giant southern supercontinent. Many subparts had joined together to form it. It existed six hundred and fifty million years ago. It centred roughly around present-day Antarctica. At that time there were no humans. It had a warm climate which provided food and life to a wide variety of flora and fauna. Gondwana thrived for 500 million years. The landmass was forced to separate into countries when the dinosaurs were wiped out and the age of mammals set in.

(b) Do you agree with the Tiger King's statement? You may kill even a cow in self defence.

Sol. The statement made by the tiger king, "You may kill even a cow in self-defence is satirical. I do not agree with the statement. Just to prove the astrologer's prediction wrong and for his own selfish motives, the king went on killing tigers for his own defence. One cannot kill animals for pleasure or their own motives. We don't have the right to harm animals and disturb the ecological balance.

(c) What extraordinary experience did Charley have when he went to the Grand station?

Sol. One night, while in a hurry to catch a subway train from the Grand Central Station, Charley carried a path, which led him to the third level of Grand Central Station. On reaching here, he encountered something, which occurred outright strange to him. The information booth was made of wood, and the lights existed open flame gaslight and thus dim. It does not acknowledge the new currency, which Charley was presenting. There existed old-fashioned railway machines, males and females in old-fashioned clothes, brass spittoons etc. Now Charley had an indication that the way had brought him to the past in 1894.

12. Answer any ONE of the following in about 120-50 words:

(a) After seeing off the enemy soldier, Dr. Sadao must have felt relieved. He was able to uphold the oath that he had taken as a doctor. Dr. Sadao made an entry into his daily diary explaining the dilemma faced by him and how he resolved it. Imagine yourself to be Dr. Sadao and express his thoughts.
(You may begin like this: I was able to uphold the oath that I had taken as a doctor)

Sol. (a) Value Points :

- Dilemma – Should he save the enemy (being a doctor) or let him die (being a patriot)
- True to his profession (conscientious) - attended to the wounded soldier and saved his life.
- Informed the General about the prisoner and agreed to the plan of assassination.
- (Loyal-to his country)

(b) Both Bama and Zitkala-Sa were from marginalised communities. • They challenged the system to bring dignity into their lives, Justify.

Sol. Value Points :

- Both of them faced discrimination; Zitkala Sa was discriminated against because of cultural and racial differences while Bama faced discrimination due to her caste.
- Zitkala Sa rebelled and refused to get her hair cut. She put up a strong fight, though had to give in finally.
- Bama was enraged and wanted to go and touch the packet of vadai to teach a lesson to the landlord. But was guided by her elder brother to calm down. He showed her the path to overcome discrimination.
